p. 280 #99 – REVIEW- The first wife of Moses Esty, twin, born 7 Jan 1751/52 is identified as Elizabeth Fearels, who died 23 Feb 1783. The transcribed History of the First Presbyterian Church, in Morristown, N. J. identifies her as Elizabeth Fearelo but states “the record is uncertain; the name may be deciphered as Fearclo or as Fearels.” Records found use all these variations along with others, so the correct spelling may not ever be known. Original record is difficult to read but shows 23 as the correct date. John's burial is listed in Tisdale Cemetery in Sharon, but his gravestone is located in the Esty Family Burial Ground in Sharon, Norfolk, Massachusetts. Gravestone gives death date as November 27, but this may have been his burial date. [Sharon Births, Marriages and DeathAncestry.com. p. 284 #111 - CORRECTION: Entry for Jeremiah, b. 9 Sep 1775, should read m. Judith French in Sharon. He was NOT the Jeremiah who married widow Mary Preston 4 Apr 1824 in Salem. [Salem and Middleton VRs] This Jeremiah and wife Judith were recorded in Sharon in 1850 and 1855 Census, the last taken one month before Jeremiah's death, so he did not marry a second time. p. 285 #112 - CORRECTION: Hoover writes Ebenezer, b. 8 June 1775, m. Bathsheba Estes, not Esther as shown in Natick VRs. Milford and Mendon VRs show her name as Estes, which agrees with birth record in Wareham VRs.

p. 286 #27 - CORRECTION: Edward4 Estie died 6 Nov 1789 in Stoughton. Originally entered as Canton (based on Bangs, Hoover Endnote #300) which was not separated from Stoughton until 1797. It was part of Suffolk County until 1793 when it became part of Norfolk County. [Ancestry's Big Red Book, p. 352; Wikipedia entry for Canton, Massachusetts]

p. 286 #27 - CORRECTED ENTRY: Paragraph #4 should be deleted, and daughter Elizabeth, born about 1722, should be entered as #121 between Isaac and Jabez. She died 26 Jan 1737/38 in Stoughton at age 16. She is listed as one of the five children of Edward and

Elizabeth Esty on a gravestone in Pearl Street Cemetery in Stoughton. [Stoughton VRs, FindAGrave.com Memorial ID 69440606] Note: Should a new edition of this book be published, all of Mary's descendants and Endnotes going forward from Jabez, now #121, would need to be renumbered and the Index revised.

Numbering in this compilation of errata will be as originally published to avoid confusion.

p. 287 #126 – ADDITION: [Mary #126], page 287: She married as his second wife David Sumner, 21 November 1776 in Stoughton321,322, died 11 November 1789 in Milton323. p. 293 #158 - CORRECTION: John, born 16 May 1774, DID NOT marry Sally Peabody. The John who married her was the son of Daniel Estey and Hannah Towne, born 28 March 1785 in Topsfield. [Middleton VRs]

p. 294 #158 – ADDITION: Elizabeth married a man named Fisher. [Middleton VRs]

p. 294 #158 – EXPLANATION: Flint is shown with no wife. This is correct. Boxford VRs show a marriage intention between him and Sarah Burnham dated 11 Sep 1842 Flint ESTEY of Middleton to Sarah BURNHAM. However, the notation "not married" is in the "Date of Marriage" column. The fact that the marriage didn't take place would agree with Flint's identification as single in all records found.

p. 303 #195 - CORRECTED ENTRY: Second paragraph should read: Daniel and his first wife, Mary Edwards, married in Rochester. The births of their children have been listed in Rochester; Freetown, Bristol, Massachusetts; and Douglas, Worcester, Massachusetts. Baptisms for the first two children, Hannah and Daniel, were found in Rochester so it is likely they were born there. [Rochester VRs] In 1753, Daniel "of Freetown" deeded the homestead in Rochester to his brother Ephraim. Since it appears he was living in Freetown during this time, it is likely the next 3 children, Stephen, Charity and Rebecca were born in Freetown [Freetown VRs]. According to Daniels in History of Oxford, Daniel (recorded as David) purchased land in Douglas on 11 November 1760, remaining there until 1768 when he purchased land on Prospect Hill, later Ward which became Auburn. The last child, Daniel, is only listed in the Douglas VRs so was likely born there.
